

SKERTICH, GARSON, KURTH, and VENTRELLA Win 1st Event

Foursome fires 9-under 62 scramble total

Terry Skertich, Ken Garson, Bill Kurth, and Ken Ventrella defeated 22 other IAA four person scramble teams to win the top prizes of $180 in the first 2005 IAA golf event. Firing a 9-under 62, which included an eagle 3 on the par 5 15th, they edged team Rios (63), and Team Springer (63) for the title. Team Steapleton and Team Crawford posted 64's while Team Serrato's 65 claimed the final cashing spot.

Team Skertich also won the only skin, valued at $800, with the event's lone eagle !!. Tournament Coordinator Mike Kraushaar noted, "there were two skins on the board when Team Skertich, the 19th of 22 teams, posted their scores. They knocked both of the existing skins out, while creating one of their own to the dismay of the 30-40 players still in the bar at Scherwood."

Closest to pin honors went to Kraushaar, Danny Rios, Bruce Lane, and Kirk Lidster.

The next outing is May 21st at Glenwoodie. Players can contact the course for their tee times beginning May 7th. This will be a 7:00 am start.
