Family Learn To Ski Day 02/17/2007

by Leslie Miskulin & Nora Vega

There was a small turn out for the Swiss Valley trip. However, the weather was beautiful, sunny, and in the mid 20's. The snow was perfect - coming down all day in large fluffy flakes. It was the best snow ever for, perfect for a family ski day. Nora Vega, her son Julio, his wife Neomi and their two daughters attended. Four year old Isabel and Elisa who is nine, signed up for ski school lessons. By the end of the day they were asking their grandma when she was going to take them skiing in Colorado. Maddie Miskulin, Rob McMahon, and Marissa Hoshaw skied together all day. They particularly enjoyed playing in the snowboard area. "Bazzi Miskulin (the boxer pup)" also went along on the trip. Bazzi's favorite activity was sniffing in the snow drifts along the parking lot. Everyone that attended had a great time. Pictures from this and other trips can be found on the web page at www.inlandskiclub.com.

PURDUE BOILERMAKERS VS NOTRE DAME

Joe Tiller's Boilermakers will have nine returning starters on each side of the ball ready for the 2007 version of Big Ten football. Mark your calendars and get your order in now. The IAA was able to secure only 25 tickets this year for the annual slugfest against in-state rival, Notre Dame.

This year's game in West Lafayette will be on September 29. Tickets are priced at face value, $65 each, with a limit of four per member.

Fill out the coupon and mail, along with full payment. If more requests are received than there are tickets available, a drawing will be held on June 1 to determine the winners. Please, no phone calls or duplicate orders.
